

Come Kip With Me - Londoners take up Rory Stewart's offer

Former Tory minister Rory Stewart is offering to stay with Londoners to learn more about the city as he tries to revive his attempt to become the capital's next mayor. In a scheme he is calling #ComeKipWithMe, yes, honestly, Stewart is urging people to offer him shelter for the night so that he can listen to their concerns about the city. Incredibly, over 2000 people have signed up for the initiative, but not everyone would be that happy to find a stranger in their house...

When a Stranger Calls

GRAMS Horror/Thriller trailer music (runs throughout)

FX: Phone Rings and is then answered

JILL: Hello

RORY (VO): (slightly creepily) Have you checked the children.

JILL: What?

RORY (VO) (Normally) Sorry, I mean, I want to see things through your eyes.

FX: Sound of phone being hung up and then dialled

JILL: Hello, can you get me the police? (Beat) It's him again.

SACHER (VO): Well, there's not a lot we can do about it down here but,

FX: Beeping on phone line

JILL: (Interrupting) Hang on, I've got another call

RORY: Please Jill, I just want to know about your life, and your city; see things through your eyes. Like the way you are looking out of the kitchen right now. Whoops.

FX: Dial tone

JILL: It was him. He's watching me through the windows.

SACHER (VO): Well if he calls again, we can try to trace the call.

FX: Phone beeps again

RORY (VO): (Creepily) Why haven't you checked the children?

JILL: I don't have any children.

RORY (VO): Yes, of course. All I need is a sofa. Or even your floor will do?

JILL: Wait, are you homeless?

FX: Dial tone

JILL: Please can't you help me Sergeant, I'm all alone here.

SACHER: Jill, please lock all your doors, we're trying to trace the call.

FX: Doors being locked. Phone rings

JILL: What do you want?

RORY (VO): I just want to see things through your eyes Jill. To walk in your shoes.
To know your concerns and your ideas of how to fix London.

FX: Dial tone and then the phone rings again

JILL: (Shouting as she answers) Leave me alone!

SACHER: (Alarmed) Jill, this is Sergeant Sacher, we've traced the call and it is coming from inside the house! Jill, just get out of that house!

FX: Sounds of doors unlocking, door opening and then a scream

RORY: Don't be alarmed Jill, it's just me, Rory. See, I've bought my own sleeping bag and a box of chocolates for you. Now, (Creepily) let me see things through your eyes.

FX: Long scream

NARRATOR VO: And the terror just begins, when a former tory calls.

END

The sketch is based on this trailer: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PVAx84hpo-c>